

*CONFESSION OF FAITH

Hebrews 11:1-7

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. <sup>2</sup>For by it the people of old received their commendation. <sup>3</sup>By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible. <sup>4</sup>By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous, God commending him by accepting his gifts. And through his faith, though he died, he still speaks. <sup>5</sup>By faith Enoch was taken up so that he should not see death, and he was not found, because God had taken him. Now before he was taken he was commended as having pleased God. <sup>6</sup>And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. <sup>7</sup>By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

Thou hidden source of calm repose, Thou all-sufficient love divine,
My help and refuge from my foes, Secure I am, if thou art mine:
And lo! from sin, and grief and shame, I hide me, Jesus, in thy Name.

Thy mighty Name salvation is, And keeps my happy soul above;
Comfort it brings, and pow'r, and peace, And joy, and everlasting love:
To me, with thy dear Name are giv'n, Pardon and holiness and heav'n.

In want my plentiful supply, In weakness my almighty pow'r,
In bonds my perfect liberty, My light in Satan's darkest hour,
My help and stay whene'er I call, My life in death, my heav'n, my all.
