*INVOCATION

*CONFESSION OF FAITH                      Westminster Confession of Faith
Chapter XVI – Of Good Works

Good works, done in obedience to God's commandments, are the fruits and evidences of a true and lively faith: and by them believers manifest their thankfulness, strengthen their assurance, edify their brethren, adorn the profession of the Gospel, stop the mouths of the adversaries, and glorify God, whose workmanship they are, created in Christ Jesus thereunto; that, having their fruit unto holiness, they may have the end eternal life. The believer's ability to do good works is not at all of themselves, but wholly from the Spirit of Christ. And that they may be enabled thereunto, beside the graces they have already received, there is required an actual influence of the same Holy Spirit to work in them to will and to do of His good pleasure: yet are they not hereupon to grow negligent, as if they were not bound to perform any duty unless upon a special motion of the Spirit; but they ought to be diligent in stirring up the grace of God that is in them.

*HYMN OF CONFESSION                      TUNE: WHAT A FRIEND 8.7.8.7.D
Words: Palmer, 1864; Music: Converse, 1868

Take me, O my Father, take me; Take me, save me, through thy Son;
That which thou wouldst have me, make me, Let thy will in me be done.
Long from thee my footsteps straying, Thorny proved the way I trod;
Weary come I now, and praying, Take me to thy love, my God.

Fruitless years with grief recalling, Humbly I confess my sin;
At thy feet, O Father, falling, To thy household take me in.
Freely now to thee I proffer This relenting heart of mine;
Freely life and soul I offer, Gift unworthy love like thine.

Once the world's Redeemer, dying, Bore our sins upon the tree;
On that sacrifice relying, Now I look in hope to thee:
Father, take me; all forgiving, Fold me to thy loving breast;
In thy love for ever living I must be for ever blest.
