Worship Guide: Making Sense of the Psalter

When we think of Psalm 51, we naturally think of David’s grievous sin and the outpouring of repentance in verses 1-11. But, as this model serves as a reminder for believers and how we are to come before God regularly, verses 12-19 also show how us how we should faithfully praying that God will use this experience. 12-13: That God may grant to us joy in forgiveness and a mind sensitive to succumbing to same temptation again, that others will see His power of His salvation. 14-15. That God may free us from the burden of our sin that we may rightly praise Him for His work of salvation. 16-17. That He may grant us hearts that are regularly broken and contrite so as not to think that our salvation is in anything other than the work of Christ alone. And 18-19, as we corporately make this our practice, that our Lord may restore and prosper His church to worship that pleases Him – Worship in spirit and truth, through Jesus Christ.
