Worship Guide: Making Sense of the Psalter

Under the sinful oppression of his own son (2 Samuel 14), David cries out to the Lord in Psalm 4:1-2, begging to know how long he will have to endure those who shame God’s glory and pursue worthlessness. But in the midst of his anger and confusion, which brings on sleeplessness, he reminds himself of the fact that the people of God are secure from even the greatest threats (v. 3). So, with this truth in mind, instead of responding sinfully to the sin of others, and in disobedience, failing to see the goodness of the Lord (v. 6), he trusts in the Lord, does what is right and finds, not only great joy (v. 5, 7), but restful comfort in the Lord who safely keeps His own in Christ (v. 8).
