Worship Guide: Making Sense of the Psalter

In Psalm 119:25-32 the Psalmist shows us that he is aware that God uses His Word to mercifully grant His people life and strength. And here he testifies that surely without it he would be left clinging to worthless foundations and overcome by the sorrows of daily life (v. 25 & 28). That is why he not only comes asking the Lord to graciously teach him the truth, which will keep him from falsehood, and to make him to understand the Word, but by graciously allowing him to choose again and again to meditate and set before himself the truth of the living God (v. 26-27, 29-30). For the Psalmist knows that in so doing, he will be clinging to the sure foundation of the Word (v. 31), by which he will be enabled to run with joy after the Lord, Jesus Christ (v. 32).

Sermon Notes & Quotes

“Learn to know what you mean when you talk of believing the doctrines of Christianity. Be able to give a reason of your hope. Be able to say what you think true, and what you think false in religion. And never, never forget that the only foundation of soundness of faith, is a thorough textual knowledge of the Bible.” – Ryle
